The 5 member Board is responsible for governance over the operations of the SSA. The SSA Board is a non-political oversight body working on behalf of the Stó:lō Nation Chiefs Council (SNCC). It is committed to providing a leadership role to ensure First Nation clients are receiving high quality services from the agency. To achieve its objectives, the Board works closely with governments and provincial organizations and a wide range of interested stakeholders, including the SNCC First Nations.

The Board representative must possess the following personal qualities, skills and experience:

- Proven leadership skills
- Strong background in service delivery knowledge
- Good strategic and facilitation skills, ability to influence and achieve consensus
- Impartiality
- Tact and diplomacy
- Board level experience
- Excellent record of achievement in one or several areas of relevant skills and experience which will benefit the SSA.

The Board is expected to meet minimum of six (6) times a year; of which meeting expenses are paid.

Interested candidates must submit their letter of intent and any questions they may have for response.
